

MATIAS SANCHEZ

*1972 in Tübingen, Germany
lives and works in Seville, Spain

Matías Sánchez is self-taught; each painting can be seen as a visualization of his world of thought - wild, thoughtful, humorous. His paintings are made up of frequently recurring pictorial elements - a caricature-like sausage, sneaky rats, grotesquely grinning skulls, but above all the figure of the painter or the artist himself, with whom Sanchez reflects on his own person.

